

Michelle Javanmardi

Country: United Kingdom

Course: Diploma of Hairdressing (Salon Management)

Institute: TAFE NSW - Sydney Institute, Ultimo College

TAFE NSW hairdressing graduate Michelle Javanmardi from the United Kingdom has come out on top winning the prestigious TAFE NSW State Medal for top marks in the Diploma of Hairdressing (Salon Management).

The State Medal is awarded to students who achieve the highest marks in New South Wales for a chosen course based on 2011 results.

Michelle graduated in six months from TAFE NSW - Sydney Institute, Ultimo College. She believes the quality of the hairdressing course as well as the teaching and equipment were excellent.

“Training at TAFE NSW gives an edge in the industry as we get to put our knowledge into practice implementing what we have learned in the classroom.

The teachers are fantastic and spend as much time as necessary to ensure you understand each module of the diploma.

The facilities are incredible and the equipment is sophisticated.”

Michelle is confident the course has equipped her for a career in hairdressing and provided her with management skills to operate a business and deliver excellent customer service.

“I would definitely recommend the Salon Management course as it helps in all areas not just hairdressing. I have been able to use the knowledge I acquired to help my partner’s business.”

TAFE NSW - Sydney Institute, Ultimo campus is centrally located in the city and has a range of facilities including canteens, coffee shops, bookshop and student association.

Published: 09 July 2012